1. (Internal Use Only - JSW) Talked with William Saltonstall in Senator Leverett Saltonstall's office on the [redacted] case and advised that [redacted] of Personnel had been in touch with the father and all possible efforts were being made to secure appropriate doctors' certificates. This was in order to have various medical bills paid under the insurance programs. Saltonstall, having been informed by the father, was fully aware of the problem of alcoholism in the background. Saltonstall also mentioned that he and the Senator were most interested in the apparent security problem and mentioned the recent [redacted] case. I informed him we were pulling this together and would be in touch with him. STAT
